

Constitution for First and Third Trinity Boat Club

Version as agreed at General Meeting - June 22nd 2020

I. General

1. This Club shall be known as First and Third Trinity Boat Club, hereinafter known as “the Club”.
2. The Officers of the Club shall be the Men's Captain, the Women’s Captain, the Senior Treasurer, the Boathouse Manager, the Secretary, the Logistics Officer, the Vice-Captain the Social Secretary, the Coxing Captain, the Alumni Relations Officer, the Water Safety and Equipment Officer, the Computing Officer, the Men's Novice and Lower Boats Captain(s) and the Women’s Novice and Lower Boats Captain(s).
3. The Overall Captain of the Club shall be either the Men's Captain or the Women's Captain.
4. The affairs of the Club shall be managed by a Committee. This Committee shall consist of the Officers of the Club as defined in (I.2) with the exception of the Senior Treasurer and Boathouse Manager. Henceforth “the Committee” shall refer to this collection of Officers.
 - a. The Committee may be expanded by means of creation of Temporary Officers of the Club. These Officers may be given the right to Membership of the Committee by means of the procedure outlined for Temporary Officers in the Committee section of this document (VII).

II. Aims and Objectives

1. To provide facilities for, and promote participation in the sport of rowing.
2. To provide coaching and competitive opportunities in rowing.
3. To promote equal opportunities for all members.

III. Membership

1. The following are eligible for Membership:

- a. Current students of Trinity College, Cambridge (henceforth “the College”), or:
 - b. Current students of any College of the University of Cambridge or Anglia Ruskin University who have previously been a student at Trinity College, Cambridge, or:
 - c. Any other current Member of Trinity College, Cambridge who is a fellow, employee or post doctoral associate of the college, or:
 - d. Any individual who has previously been a Member of the Club and who are ineligible for Membership under (III.1.a-c).
2. Membership of the Club shall be free to all Members.
 3. Members of the Club shall fall into three categories:
 - a. Full Members
 - b. Temporary Members
 - c. Honorary Members (Bufties)
 4. Full Membership of the Club may only be held by individuals eligible for Membership of the Club under (III.1.a-c). Members of the Club who do not fall under these categories and instead are Members under (III.1.d) may not hold Full Membership.
 5. The Secretary shall keep a Membership Book. This shall contain a list of all Full Members of the Club.
 6. A Member of the Club shall be granted Full Membership, if eligible for it under (III.4), by signing the Membership Book. In doing this they shall make the following declaration: I, N.N., member of the First and Third Trinity Boat Club, do hereby promise to obey the Rules and Regulations of the Club, and do acknowledge the authority of the Overall Captain and Committee in all things concerning the activities of the Club.
 7. Any individual eligible for Full Membership of the Club desiring to become a Full Member of the Club shall notify the Secretary, who shall require them to sign the Membership Book.
 8. At the beginning of each Academic Year an Open General Meeting shall be held which individuals eligible for Membership of the Club desiring to take up rowing may attend. At this meeting they will be made Temporary Members for the duration of that Academic Year, subject to (III.11-12) and in accordance with (IV). At any time during this period they may become Full Members.

9. Any Officer of the Club shall have the power to raise any individual eligible for Membership of the Club to the status of Temporary Member at any point during their term of office, subject to (III.11-12). Should they do this, they should inform both the Secretary and Overall Captain within 48 hours.
10. Temporary Membership shall cease for all current Temporary Members when the Men's Henley crew wins or is knocked out of the regatta in the year of their elevation to this status. Should the Club not enter the Henley regatta, their Membership shall cease at its conclusion.
11. No Member of the Club may row for the Club as a Temporary Member beyond the date specified in (III.10) in the Academic Year they became a Temporary Member.
12. No Member of the Club who has at any time been a Full Member of the Club may be a Temporary Member of the Club.
13. Any Member of the Club who is not eligible for Membership under (III.1.a-c) and is not a Temporary Member shall be an Honorary Member (Buftie).
14. Any Full Member of the Club who becomes no longer eligible for Membership of the Club under (III.1.a-c) shall become an Honorary Member. This process shall be assumed and requires no additional declaration.
15. Honorary Membership shall be permanent, and the Secretary shall mark in the Membership Book all those Members who hold Honorary Membership status.
16. Any Honorary Member who returns to being eligible for Membership of the Club under (III.1.a-c) shall be eligible to return to the status of Full Member of the Club, subject to (III.4 & III.6). In order to do this they shall notify the Secretary who shall return the Member in question to Full Member status.
17. Any Member of the Club who wishes to terminate their Membership shall inform the Secretary. In such a case the Secretary shall remove their name from the Membership Book (if appropriate) and confirm the termination of said Membership.
18. If it is considered by the Club Committee that the granting of Membership to an individual would be detrimental to the aims and objectives of the Club, by virtue of conduct or character likely to bring the Club or the sport of rowing into disrepute or for some other similar good cause, the Club is entitled to refuse such Membership. In doing so the Committee shall provide full reasons for their decision and grant a right of appeal to individuals concerned as outlined in the process for appeal in (III.20.a-b).

19. A person who has been expelled from, or refused Membership of, British Rowing shall not be eligible for Membership.

 - a. Any Member violating any of the Rules or Regulations of the Club or being adjudged guilty of unsatisfactory conduct may, by resolution of the Committee, be suspended or expelled. Any Member so suspended or expelled may appeal to an independent hearings panel, if such an appeal is approved by at least 4 Officers of the Club. The panel may be drawn from the Membership of the Club or from other clubs in the region. The panel will hear and receive evidence, reach a conclusion, and affirm or reject the sanctions imposed as appropriate.
 - b. Any hearings panel must give a fair and independent hearing to the appellant within an appropriate timescale. Hearings must not contravene the Human Rights Act 1998 or any other policies of the Club and British Rowing.

IV. Equal Opportunities Policy

1. The Club is fully committed to the principles of equality of opportunity and is responsible for ensuring that no Member, volunteer, employee or job applicant receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of age, colour, disability, ethnic origin, gender expression, gender identity, mental health, nationality, parental or marital status, physical health, pregnancy, political belief, race, religious belief, sex, sexual orientation or social status.

V. Grievance and Disciplinary Procedures

1. An individual or Member with a complaint about treatment by the Club should set out their grievance, in the first instance to the Overall Captain. The Club will seek to deal with complaints in a fair and timely manner, with reference to British Rowing's Guidelines on Grievance and Disciplinary Procedures in Rowing.

VI. General Meetings

1. A General Meeting of the Club shall be held at least once annually during the Easter Term. Additional General Meetings may be held at the discretion of the Committee, but not outside of Full Term. The Secretary shall post a notice, and send an email to a list of active Members, about every General Meeting at least 14 days previously, and those Members who absent themselves shall abide by the decision of those present. At least 14 days before any Meeting of the Club, the Secretary shall post, and email, all motions to be proposed at the ensuing Meeting.
2. The Secretary shall call a General Meeting to take place within three days of the receipt by them of a written request to do so, such a request being considered valid only if signed by not less than ten Full Members of the Club, and specifying the business which it is proposed to bring before the Meeting. Such a Meeting may be called by placing a notice on the boards at the Boat House, and additionally sending an email to a list of active Members of the Club, not less than 14 days previously.
3. All Meetings of the Club are to be held when and where the Secretary shall appoint. The choice of time and location should facilitate as many members attending as is reasonably possible.
4. For a General Meeting, a quorum of the Club shall be twenty Full Members, including at least 4 Officers of the Club, of which at least one must be either the Overall Captain or the Secretary.
5. Any General Meeting of the Club shall have the power to pass any motion brought before the Meeting by a majority of two-thirds of those Full Members present:
 - a. A vote on a motion shall only be considered valid if a quorum of the Club is present.
 - b. Only Full Members of the Club shall have the right to vote at a General Meeting. Each Member shall have one vote only.
 - c. Those present at a General Meeting may vote only once per motion; no one may act as a representative of another Member with the right to vote.
6. In all split decisions the Overall Captain shall have the casting vote.
 - a. In the case that the Overall Captain is absent, the Secretary shall have the casting vote.

VII. The Committee

1. The Committee shall be as defined in (I.4).
2. Meetings of the Committee shall be held as deemed necessary by the Overall Captain. The Committee should be given at least 24 hours prior notice of such a Meeting (with the exception of Meetings on matters of urgency). The time and location of such meetings should be set to permit as many officers to attend as is reasonably possible. Each Officer of the Club who is a member of the Committee must attend each Meeting of the Committee or deliver an explanation of absence to the Secretary prior to the Meeting.
 - a. The Senior Treasurer shall be invited to meetings on financial matters.
 - b. The Boathouse Manager shall be invited to committee meetings as the Overall Captain sees fit.
3. For the sake of a committee meeting called as per (VII.2), a quorum of the Committee shall consist in the presence of at least four Officers, including at least one of the Overall Captain and Secretary.
4. When it is impossible to obtain a consensus at a meeting held as per (VII.2), and in the presence of a quorum, the Committee may make decisions by majority vote of those present; one vote may be cast for each office, except that the offices of Water Safety and Equipment Officer and Computing Officer shall not entitle the holder of another office to an additional vote. In the case of a tie the Overall Captain shall have the deciding vote. In the case that a tie exists and the Overall Captain is absent the deciding vote shall be cast by the Secretary.
5. Decisions of the Committee reached at meeting held as per (VII.2) are final unless revoked either by the Committee or by the whole Club at a General Meeting at a later date.

6. The offices of Men's Novice and Lower Boats Captain and of Women's Novice and Lower Boats Captain may each be held co-operatively by one or more, but not more than four, Members of the Club. All other offices may each be held by one Member only.

7. The office of Water Safety and Equipment Officer, or Computing Officer, may be held concurrently with another office.
8. The Officers may take on other responsibilities and duties at the discretion of the Committee.
9. Additional roles of “Temporary Officers” may be created as required. These will be created by either passing a vote taken by the Committee when a quorum is present, or by passing a vote of Members at a General Meeting where a quorum is present.
10. Temporary Officer roles will last, at most, until the next Committee take office. Such a role may be created with a set life-span, shorter than this. A Temporary Officer role may also be abolished by means of a vote. In this case the same procedure as for creating a Temporary Officer will apply.
11. Temporary Officer roles do not require an election to select which Member(s) should fill them. The means by which a Temporary Office should be filled should be agreed upon at the time of creating the role.
12. Temporary Officers will not be part of the Committee unless a vote is passed at a General Meeting of Members to bestow the rights of a Committee Member upon a Temporary Officer
 - a. Only Full Members of the Club are eligible to hold the offices as defined in (VII.6)
13. Any Officer wishing to resign shall give notice to that effect to the Secretary and furnish them with the name of a Member whom they propose as their Successor; and the Secretary shall give due notice of the name of such Officer and their proposed Successor on the Club notice boards in the Boat House, and by emailing a list of active Members, and the time and place of an election for that office. The Secretary shall, in like manner, post names of any other Candidates for Office and their Proposers and Seconders.
14. A vote of no confidence for any Officer of the Club shall be held if the Secretary receives a written request signed by at least 10 Full Members of the Club. In this instance a General Meeting will be arranged by the Secretary as per (VI.2). At this Meeting a vote of no confidence shall be held. Should this vote be passed subject to (VI.5) then the Officer in question shall be removed from office with immediate effect. At this time the Overall Captain (or Secretary in the case that the Overall Captain is removed from office) shall make arrangements to absorb the duties of the removed Officer within the Officers of the Committee until a replacement Member of the Club can assume the office.

15. In the case that a Member of the Club is voted out of office in accordance with (VII.15), the Secretary shall arrange an election for the vacant office as per (VII.14).

VIII. Election of Officers

1. The Senior Treasurer shall be appointed by the College.
2. The Boathouse Manager shall be appointed by the College.
3. The Officers, excepting the Senior Treasurer, Boathouse Manager and Lower Boats Captain(s), shall be elected annually in the Easter term at a General Meeting of the Club, from among the Members of the Club who expect to be eligible full members during their time of office. The means of election shall be single transferable vote through secret ballot.
4. At least two weeks before the Meeting for the annual election, the Secretary shall post a notice stating the time and location at which the election is to be held.
5. Any Member of the Club may run for any of the elected Officer roles, subject to VIII.2.
6. Any Member of the Club wishing to stand as a Candidate for office should submit a manifesto along with the names of their Proposer and Seconder to the Secretary at least 3 days before the Meeting for the annual election.
7. At least three days before the Meeting for the annual election, the Secretary shall post the names and manifestos, and the names of the Proposers and Seconders, of each Candidate for office. The names of Candidates running co-operatively for Novice Captaincies shall be clearly marked.
8. Members of the Club eligible to vote in the elections who, with sufficient cause, are absent from the annual elections, may apply to the Secretary at least three days prior to the Meeting, for a Proxy, which they and the Secretary shall sign and date, which shall state: I, N.N., Member of the First and Third Trinity Boat Club, do hereby grant the bearer the right to vote "in loco remigantis", provided that I am absent, at the annual elections to be held on D.D.

9. For the purpose of elections only, Voting Members of the Men's Club are those Full Members of the Club who are either First May Colours (Men), Henley Colours (Men), University Rowing Colours (Men), or have rowed or coxed in crews under the direct jurisdiction of the Men's Captain or Men's Novice or Lower Boats Captain(s) during two of the most recent three Terms, inclusive of the present. One of the Terms used may have been rowed or coxed for CUBC, CUWBC or CULRC
10. For the purpose of elections only, Voting Members of the Women's Club are those Full Members of the Club who are either First May Colours (Women), Henley Colours (Women), University Rowing Colours (Women), or have rowed or coxed in crews under the direct jurisdiction of the Women's Captain or Women's Novice or Lower Boats Captain(s) during two of the most recent three Terms, inclusive of the present. One of the Terms used may have been rowed or coxed for CUBC, CUWBC or CULRC.
11. For the purposes of elections only, Voting Members of the Club are those Full Members of the Club who are either First May Colours, Henley Colours, University Rowing Colours, or have rowed or coxed in crews under the direct jurisdiction of the elected Captains during two of the most recent three terms, inclusive of the present. One of the Terms used may have been rowed or coxed for CUBC, CULRC, or CUWBC.
12. Any question regarding the Voting status of any Full Member shall be decided by the Overall Captain.
13. Voting Members of the Men's Club who are present at the election for the offices of the Men's Captain and Men's Novice Captain(s) shall each be allowed one vote, and may cast an additional vote for each Proxy which they may have received.
14. Voting Members of the Women's Club who are present at the election for the offices of Women's Captain and Women's Novice Captain(s) shall each be allowed one vote, and may cast an additional vote for each Proxy which they may have received.
15. Voting Members of the Club who are present at the election for the offices of Secretary, Logistics Officer, Vice-Captain, Social Secretary, Coxing Captain, Water Safety and Equipment Officer, Computing Officer and Alumni relations Officer shall each be allowed one vote, and may cast an additional vote for each Proxy which they may have received.

16. The Overall Captain of the Club shall be elected by a majority vote of the Voting Members present and by means of secret ballot, from a ballot consisting of the Men's Captain-elect and the Women's Captain-elect.
17. The Officers-elect, excepting the Senior Treasurer and Boathouse Manager, shall take office when the Men's Henley crew wins or is knocked out of the regatta in the year of their election. Should the Club not enter the Henley regatta, they shall take office at its conclusion.
18. The Lower Boats Captain(s) shall be elected annually in the Michaelmas term, from among the Members of the Club who expect to be eligible full members during their time of office, and any such Member may run for office. The means of election shall be single transferable vote through secret ballot. At least two weeks before this Michaelmas election, the Secretary shall post either a notice stating the time and location at which the election is to be held, or whether the elections will be held online.
19. Any Member of the Club wishing to stand as a Candidate for Lower Boats Captain should submit a manifesto along with the names of their Proposer and Secunder to the Secretary at least three days before the Michaelmas election.
20. At least three days before the Michaelmas election, the Secretary shall post the names and manifestos, and the names of the Proposers and Seconders, of each Candidate for office. The names of Candidates running cooperatively shall be clearly marked.
21. Members of the Club eligible to vote in the elections who, with sufficient cause, are absent from the annual elections, may apply to the Secretary at least three days prior to the Meeting for a Proxy, which they and the Secretary shall sign and date, which shall state: I, N.N., Member of the First and third Trinity Boat Club, do hereby grant the bearer the right to vote in loco remigantis, provided that I am absent, at the Michaelmas elections to be held on D.D..
22. The definition of Voting Members of the Club in VIII.11. will be expanded for the Michaelmas elections only to include Full Members of the Club who have rowed or coxed in crews at First and Third Trinity Boat Club under the direct jurisdiction of the elected Novice Captains that same Michaelmas term. It is not required for Voting Members to sign the Membership Book in order to cast a vote for the Michaelmas elections. Any question regarding the Voting status of any Member shall be decided by the Overall Captain.

23. Voting Members of the Club who are present at the election for the office(s) of Lower Boats Captain(s) shall each be allowed one vote, and may cast an additional vote for each Proxy which they may have received.
24. The Michaelmas Officer(s)-elect shall take office when the final First and Third Trinity crew completes the Fairbairn Cup course. Should the Club not enter the Fairbairn Cup, or should the Club enter but no boat complete the course, they shall take office at its conclusion. Simultaneously, the Novice Captain(s) shall lose their Officership(s), and thereby implicitly their Committee voting rights.

IX. Finance

1. The Committee shall obtain the approval of the Senior Treasurer before otherwise involving the Club in significant financial expenditure.
2. The Senior Treasurer shall keep the accounts of the Club and shall produce them for audit by two Members annually.
3. The rates for rack rent at the Club Boat House shall be determined on a case-by-case basis, by the Overall Captain and the Senior Treasurer. These charges shall be reviewed at the start of each Term and collected by the Boathouse Manager.
4. The Secretary may maintain a separate bank account from which to pay for such booking of venues, race bills, and transport expenses as accrue during each Term, and shall provide full accounting of expenditures and income related to races and transport to the Senior Treasurer at the close of each Term, if requested, and provide an annual full account at the AGM.
5. The Logistics Officer may maintain a separate bank account from which to pay for refreshments and collect money relating to orders of kit and related items during each Term, and shall provide full accounting of expenditures and income to the Senior Treasurer at the close of each term, if requested, and provide an annual full account at the AGM.
6. The Social Secretary may maintain a separate bank account from which to pay for items relating to social events during each Term, and shall provide full accounting of expenditures and income to the Senior Treasurer at the close of each term, if requested, and provide an annual full account at the AGM.

7. The Secretary and Overall Captain shall have access to, and control over, the accounts maintained by the Logistics Officer and the Social Secretary in order to have a complete view of the finances not controlled by the Senior Treasurer. The Secretary or Overall Captain may act in lieu of the Officers maintaining these accounts if they deem such action necessary.
8. Any fines or charges imposed by the Committee must be paid by Members as requested by the third week of Term following the request.
9. The Committee may charge Members of the Club for that part of race bills not covered by the college, and maintain individual accounts including these and other expenses which they may incur during Term. The Secretary shall tabulate these charges for inclusion on College Bills.

x. Uniform and Colours

1. Members of the Club are expected to procure appropriate uniform for training and racing.
